Have you ever tried logging into Pearson and it keeps telling you that your username and password are wrong?? But you know you typed it in correctly?!

That is probably because you are using the general Pearson link, NOT the YWCP Pearson website link. Below is the link you need to access Pearson ON ANY device!

Staff Spotlight

Shayla Bell

Social Studies Teacher

Before joining YWCP, Ms. Bell worked with the University of Rochester and Freedom School to push literacy and cultural studies to inner-city youth. Additionally, she worked in the Rochester City School District. Ms. Bell chose to join YWCP because she feels that she can connect, motivate, and educate young girls to grow into powerful and loving women.

Ms. Bell is a two-time graduate from The College at Brockport with a degree in African American Studies and a Master's in Education. Her concentration is social studies grades 5-12 and special education. Her goal is to start a Doctorate program by the beginning of 2021.

As a mother of three girls, she has learned to love many things, but most of all she loves watching girls' gymnastics, track, and reading. She also loves family movie nights and shopping.
