Women's History Month

Every year March is designated Women's History Month by Presidential proclamation. The month is set aside to honor women's contributions in American history. Women's History Month started as Women's History Week. Women's History Month began as a local celebration in Santa Rosa, California. The Education Task Force of the Sonoma County (California) Commission on the Status of Women planned and executed a "Women's History Week" celebration in 1978. The organizers selected the week of March 8 to correspond with International Women's Day. The movement spread across the country as other communities initiated their own Women's History Week celebrations the following year.

The theme for Women's History Month in 2021 captures the spirit of these challenging times. Since many of the women's suffrage centennial celebrations originally scheduled for 2020 were curtailed, the National Women's History Alliance is extending the annual theme for 2021 to "Valiant Women of the Vote: Refusing to Be Silenced. Each day this month, we will highlight a woman suffragist through email to all staff and students.

Stephanie Senecal

Special Education Teacher

Ms. Senecal joined YWCP in February of 2013 after graduating from Nazareth College with a Bachelor's Degree in Inclusive Education. She continued her studies at Nazareth to earn her Master's in Inclusive Education with a specialization in Autism. Ms. Senecal chose to join YWCP because she believes that every student is capable of success when they are provided excellent academic and social-emotional support, which are pillars of the "YWCP Way". She has truly loved working with the girls at YWCP for the last 9 years. Ms. Senecal most enjoys supporting and helping young women become the best version of themselves. Ms. Senecal is also the Varsity volleyball coach at YWCP and is excited for the program to continue to develop. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, cooking, playing volleyball, interior design, and spending lots of time with family and friends. Ms. Senecal is getting married in June and has two dogs that she treats like her actual children! She can't wait to be back in the building with everyone and continue to make memories with her Lady Griffins!
